GIRL ACCUSER VANISHES AFTER VISIT TO TOMBS.

Spirited Away, Relatives Say, by Friends of Man She Charges With Felonious Offense.

their Wenger, twenty-one years old, comp daant against Morris Neiditsch of No. 251 Madison street, falled to appear Centre Street Court to-day when the case, a charge of betrayal, was called for examination before Magistrate Cor-

I believe that this girl has been spilled away by friends of the defendsaid Assistant District-Attorney trenel. "Miss Wenger went to the Tombs yesterday to see Neiditsch. She left the prison when the visitor's hour was over and has not since been seen." Nieditsch, who on his arrest was placed under $1,000 ball, returned to the Tombs under $2,000 ball. He said the girl had been to see him yesterday, but denied that he knew of her whereabouts. Miss Fannie Herzka, Miss Wenger's ousin, testified: "Annie did not come home, and all last evening I spent trying to find her. None of our relatives had seen her. I feel sure that she is being kept a prisoner by some of Morris's friends so that he will be released."

Mr. Deuel said he would ask the police to issue a general alarm. Detective Brown was detailed to investigate.

CLEARED OF HORSE POISONING Millionaire Libermans' Indictments Quashed in Court.

Judge Mulqueen, in the Court of General Sessions, to-day sustained a denurrer and quashed indictments charge ing Simon and Julius Liberman, officials of the Liberman Dairy Company of No. 58 Boerum street, Brooklyn, with wilfur destruction of property.

These two men-reputed to be millonaires were charged by "Yesky Niging gang, with having Louis Blumen-thal polyon the horse of Mrs. Bessie Israel, a rival in business. Blumenthal was the east side horseshoer who was assassinated because he threatened to betray the horse poisoners. His mur-deter was never discovered.
